

App. No. 10/710,960

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER

APR 28 2008

In the Claims:

Claims 1-38 (Cancelled)

39. (new) A method for air and bus charter management comprising: having a database; having said database contain data about a traveler to and from a casino; and allowing said data to be accessed by users having other database systems being used to form a charter comparing said data against a rule set notifying if a rule set is broken where said traveler is contacted based on a selection criteria where said selection criteria is based on the information contained in said database and having players and users connecting each other using a communication means and having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information, having said data being historic data of said traveler where said historic data being the travel history, seat number, and companions of said traveler.

40. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising notifying through an E-mail.

41. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising notifying through the a mailing.

42. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising notifying through a telephonic.

43. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising having the system contact other databases where said other databases are reservations systems databases.

44. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising having said users searching bases on qualifying criteria.

45. (new) A method of claim 39 further comprising having said users searching for a plurality of travelers based on their travel information.